

Diwali Celebration

Diwali, an occasion to celebrate victory over defeat, light over darkness, love over hate, an occasion to celebrate life. Like the diya's brings a glow of happiness and enlighten our soul, this time let's be someone's diya and enlighten their lives.

_"Tu jashn ban kisiki zindagi ka, ek ujjala diya kisiki Diwali ka" _

Sahyog foundation this Diwali did a Commendable effort by being Diya which brought Ujjala in lives of so many people living in Sanjay camp this Diwali. On the Eve of Diwali Sahyog Foundation with NSS students from Venkateshwar college distributed Stationery kit comprising of Register, Pen pencil etc to 150 students in the age group of 8-15 years as this was much required during this COVID 19 pandemic time when kids are not going to School and haven't got books and stationery for their respective Schools .

Let's root for each other and watch each other grow. With the digital India campaign in its full swing, Sahyog Foundation has been a constant catalyst to this initiative. With its motive to inspire trust and to transform lives, through leadership in digital payments, nurturing social and financial inclusion, Oxigen Sahyog Foundation is helping to make thousands lives easier through technology. We sincerely thanked The Management for their part in this noble journey.

On this festival of lights let's take up the role of kindness fairy who breaks down every vile barrier with good deeds, warm words and benevolent smile.

Let's be a bridge that links all hearts with the thread of kindness.

Let's take a little time to show that we care and to reinstil the faith that we are still the anchors that keep their ships safe in stormy nights.

Let's set a gentle reminder to our dear ones that a small act of kindness every now and then can prevent a stream of tears from others.

Let's be the glue that binds all shades of love and crusade our way holding the flag of kindness.

Acknowledgement By NSS SVC on mail and On Instagram "Sahyog Foundation is a constant support and one of its kinds for several women. They have made a sincere effort to tirelessly uplift the downtrodden and empower the powerless. Their support and help to NSS SVC is extra ordinary. We thank them for all they have done and wish them more success with each passing year".

NSS SVC would humbly like express our gratitude to our community partners for being the fairies for so many this Diwali and helping us in our project Asha. This Distribution drive would not have been successful without your prompt help.

Thank you so much for understanding our purpose and investing your time and efforts it this cause.

All we can say is, Thank you for helping us in the pursuit of bring glow of smiles and enlightening the souls of people living in Sanjay Camp.

Seema Khurana
CSR Lead & Activist

